A Euro Area Business Cycle Network (EABCN) Conference

Organisers: Domenico Giannone (ECARES, ULB and CEPR), Robert Kollmann (ECARES, ULB and CEPR), Andrew Scott (LBS and CEPR) and Rafael Wouters (National Bank of Belgium and CEPR)

The Great Recession, which began in the US in December 2007, has thrown up a huge variety of new research threads, reopening old debates and challenging widely held preconceptions. Policy makers and academics have not been slow to respond to these challenges. Three years after the crisis began the aim of this conference is to perform an audit of what has been learnt and what needs to be studied. It will offer a broad perspective covering both theory and econometric practice and to create an event for policymakers to pose what they consider to be the as yet most important unanswered questions.

The conference will be based around the themes of:

- Econometrics and Empirics of the Crisis
- Macroeconomic and Financial Risk
- Credit Frictions and the New New Macro
- Monetary and Fiscal Policy Responses to the Crisis

We already have participation from Professors Gali, Jeanne, Kiyotaki, Primiceri, Reichlin, Suarez, Ventura and Watson and welcome further relevant submissions.

The Deadline for replies is 12:00 GMT on Friday August 30th 2010. Please email your paper and the following application form to Nadine Clarke at nclarke@cepr.org. Authors of successful submissions will be notified by end-September 2010.

Limited funding is available for travel expenses for academic participants presenting or acting as discussants. Expenses will be paid according to the standard CEPR travel guidelines (www.cepr.org/meets/WKCN/misc/trp.pdf) Costs will not be covered for central bank participants.
